No.1 / 料理教室の教室変更（公民館→受講者）

From: Greenfield Community Center <info@greenfieldcc.org>

To: Daniel Foster <d.foster@email.com>

Date: October 12

Subject: Change to Your Tuesday Cooking Class

Dear Mr. Foster, Thank you for joining our Tuesday evening cooking class this autumn. I am writing to let you know about an important change. Because more people signed up than we expected, we have decided to move the class to a larger kitchen on the second floor, starting next week.

The new room, Kitchen B, has more cooking stations, so everyone will now have their own space to work. The class will still begin at 7:00 p.m., but please arrive ten minutes early next week so that we can show you where to find your station and store your bags. The first floor kitchen will no longer be used for this class.

Also, because the new room is bigger, we are looking for one volunteer each week to help set out the cooking tools before the class begins. If you would be willing to help, please reply to this email. Volunteers receive a small discount on next term's fees. We look forward to seeing you next Tuesday. Best regards, Karen Mills, Class Coordinator

- (1) Why is the class being moved to a new room?
- 1 Because the first floor kitchen is closing for repairs.
 - 2 Because more people joined the class than expected.
 - 3 Because the class time has changed to the morning.
 - 4 Because the old room was too expensive to use.
- (2) Next Tuesday, Mr. Foster should
- 1 bring his own cooking tools from home.
 - 2 use the first floor kitchen as usual.
 - 3 pay an extra fee for the larger room.
 - 4 arrive ten minutes before the class starts.
- (3) What does Karen Mills ask Mr. Foster to do?
- 1 Consider helping to set up the class as a volunteer.
 - 2 Sign up for next term's class right away.
 - 3 Bring a friend to the next lesson.
 - 4 Choose a new cooking station online.

To: Mark Reyes <m.reyes@brightsystems.com>

Subject: Preparing for the Henderson Visit

Hi Mark, As you know, the team from Henderson Foods will be visiting our office next Thursday to discuss the new packaging project. I'd like you to take the lead in preparing for the meeting, since you know this client better than anyone else on the team.

There are a few things to get ready. First, please update the slides with the latest sales figures from February—the old numbers are now out of date. Second, the visitors mentioned that they are especially interested in our eco-friendly materials, so please prepare two or three samples to show them. I've asked the design team to give you anything you need.

Could you also book the large meeting room for the whole afternoon? We may need extra time, and I don't want to be rushed. If you run into any problems or need more help, let me know by Wednesday at the latest. Thanks for taking this on—I'm confident the visit will go well with you leading it. Best, Lisa

- (1) Why does Lisa want Mark to lead the preparations?
- 1 Because he designed the new packaging himself.
 - 2 Because the other team members are too busy.
 - 3 Because he is more familiar with the customer than his coworkers.
 - 4 Because he asked to be in charge of the meeting.
- (2) One thing Mark needs to do is
- 1 refresh the presentation with last month's sales data.
 - 2 remove all information about eco-friendly materials.
 - 3 create a brand-new design for the packaging.
 - 4 contact Henderson Foods to change the date.
- (3) What does Lisa ask Mark to do about the meeting room?
- 1 Move the meeting to a different office.
 - 2 Check whether the room has enough chairs.
 - 3 Cancel the room if the visit is delayed.
 - 4 Reserve the large room for the entire afternoon.

No.3 / 夏の読書祭ボランティア募集 (図書館→会員)

From: Riverside Public Library <events@riversidelib.org>

To: Emma Clarke <emma.clarke@email.com>

Date: June 5

Subject: Volunteers Needed for Summer Reading Festival

Dear Ms. Clarke, Every summer, our library holds a Reading Festival for local children, and this year it will take place on Saturday, July 20. Because you have been such an active member and often join our events, we wanted to invite you to take part as a volunteer this year.

Volunteers help in many ways. Some read stories aloud to small groups of children, while others help run craft activities or guide families around the different booths. You do not need any special experience—we will hold a short training session on July 13 to explain everything. The festival usually runs from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., but volunteers may choose to help for just the morning or the afternoon if they cannot stay all day.

If you are interested, please fill in the form on our website by July 6 so that we know how many helpers to expect. Even if you cannot join this time, we would be grateful if you could share the news with friends who might like to help. Thank you for supporting your local library. Warm regards, Tom Becker, Events Team

(1) Why was Ms. Clarke invited to volunteer?

- 1 Because she takes part in the library's activities regularly.
- 2 Because she has worked at the library before.
- 3 Because she has children who attend the festival.
- 4 Because she asked to become a volunteer.

(2) According to the email, volunteers

- 1 must have experience reading to children.
- 2 can choose to help for only part of the day.
- 3 are required to stay from morning until evening.
- 4 will be paid for their time at the festival.

(3) What does Tom Becker ask Ms. Clarke to do if she cannot join?

- 1 Visit the festival as a guest instead.
- 2 Reply to explain why she is too busy.
- 3 Tell friends who might want to help.
- 4 Donate some books to the library.

No.4 / 新しい練習スケジュール (テニスクラブ→会員)

From: Coach David Owens <coach@citytennisclub.com>

To: Club Members <members@citytennisclub.com>

Date: September 1

Subject: New Practice Schedule from October

Dear Members, I hope you all enjoyed the summer season. I am writing to tell you about our new practice schedule, which will begin on October 1. We have made some changes based on the feedback many of you gave us at the end of last term.

The biggest change is that we will now offer two evening practices each week, on Tuesdays and Thursdays, instead of just one. Several members told us that the single weekend practice was often too crowded, so we hope the extra evening sessions will give everyone more court time. The Saturday morning practice will continue as usual for those who prefer weekends.

Because the courts can only hold a limited number of players, we ask all members to sign up online for each session they plan to attend. This will help us avoid overcrowding and make sure there are enough coaches. Sign-ups for October will open on September 20. If you have any questions about the new schedule, feel free to speak to me at the club. See you on the court! David

(1) Why did the club change the practice schedule?

- 1 Because a new coach has joined the club.
- 2 Because the courts will be repaired soon.
- 3 Because fewer members are coming to practice.
- 4 Because members shared their opinions after the last term.

(2) The new schedule will include

- 1 only one practice on the weekend.
- 2 fewer practices than before.
- 3 two evening practices each week.
- 4 no weekend practice at all.

(3) What does Coach Owens ask members to do?

- 1 Pay a higher fee for evening practices.
- 2 Sign up online for each session they will attend.
- 3 Bring their own tennis balls to practice.
- 4 Choose between weekday and weekend membership.

To: Ryan Foster <ryan.foster@email.com>

Date: August 14

Subject: Thank You and a Small Request

Dear Ryan, Thank you so much for signing up to volunteer at this year's City Charity Run on September 8. With your help, we can make the event safe and fun for the thousands of runners taking part. I'm writing to confirm your role and to ask one small favor.

You have been placed at the water station near the halfway point of the course. Your job will be to hand out cups of water to runners as they pass. It can get busy, so we will have four volunteers working together at your station. Please wear comfortable clothes and a hat, as you will be standing outside for several hours. We will provide a free volunteer T-shirt and lunch on the day.

Here is the small favor: we are still short of volunteers for the finish line, where medals are given out. If you happen to know anyone who would like to help, could you pass on our website address? Also, please arrive at your station by 7:30 a.m. for a short briefing. Thank you again for your kindness. Best wishes, Olivia

No.9 / 断水のお知らせ (管理人→入居者)

From: Sunset Apartments Management <manager@sunsetapts.com>

To: All Residents <residents@sunsetapts.com>

Date: February 9

Subject: Water Will Be Turned Off on February 16

Dear Residents, I am writing to inform you that the water supply to the whole building will be turned off on Monday, February 16, from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. This is necessary so that workers can replace some old water pipes in the basement, which have started to leak.

During these hours, no water will be available in any apartment, so please plan ahead. We suggest filling a few bottles or a large pot with water the night before, especially if you need water for cooking or for pets. The heating will not be affected, so your apartments will stay warm. We expect the work to finish by 4:00 p.m., but if there are delays, we will put a notice in the entrance hall.

If you have any special needs—for example, if someone in your home is ill and needs water during the day—please contact the management office before February 14 so that we can help. We are sorry for any trouble this may cause and thank you for your understanding. Sincerely, Paul Higgins, Building Manager

(1) Why will the water be turned off?

- 1 Because the building is being painted.
- 2 Because some pipes have begun to leak and must be fixed.
- 3 Because there is not enough water in the city.
- 4 Because the heating system is broken.

(2) Before the water is turned off, residents should

- 1 turn off their heating.
- 2 leave the building for the day.
- 3 contact the city water company.
- 4 store some water in bottles or a pot.

(3) What should residents with special needs do?

- 1 Let the office know in advance.
- 2 Move to another apartment for the day.
- 3 Pay an extra fee for water.
- 4 Wait in the entrance hall.

Subject: Details for Your Talk on August 5

Dear Dr. Reed, Thank you for agreeing to speak at the TechForward Conference on August 5. We are delighted to have you, as your research on clean energy is exactly the kind of topic our audience is eager to hear about. I am writing to share some details so that everything runs smoothly on the day.

Your talk is scheduled for 2:00 p.m. and should last about thirty minutes, with ten minutes afterward for questions. The room will have a screen and a microphone, so please bring your slides on a USB drive. If you prefer to use your own laptop, that is fine too—just let us know in advance so we can check that it connects to our system.

We would also like to put a short description of your talk in the program. Could you please send us a paragraph of about a hundred words by July 15? This will help people decide which sessions to attend. If you have any questions before the conference, please don't hesitate to email me. We look forward to seeing you. Best regards, Maria

No.11 / プール改装のお知らせ (ジム→会員)

From: FitLife Gym <info@fitlifegym.com>

To: Hannah Brooks <h.brooks@email.com>

Date: April 20

Subject: Swimming Pool Closed for Renovation

Dear Ms. Brooks, As a valued member, we want to let you know that our swimming pool will be closed for renovation from May 1 to May 21. We are making this improvement because many members asked for a larger pool and better changing rooms, and we are happy to finally make it happen.

During the three weeks of work, the pool and the changing rooms next to it will not be available. However, the rest of the gym, including the exercise machines and the fitness classes, will stay open as usual. We understand that some members come mainly to swim, so during this period you are welcome to use the pool at our partner gym, Aqua Center, just ten minutes away, at no extra cost.

To use the partner pool, simply show your FitLife membership card at the Aqua Center front desk. If you have any questions, or if you would like us to pause your membership for the three weeks instead, please reply to this email or speak to our staff. Thank you for your patience while we make your gym even better. Kind regards, The FitLife Team

(1) Why is the pool being renovated?

- 1 Because members wanted bigger and better facilities.
- 2 Because the pool was damaged in a storm.
- 3 Because too few members were using it.
- 4 Because the city ordered the gym to close it.

(2) During the renovation, members can

- 1 use only the changing rooms.
- 2 use the pool at a partner gym for free.
- 3 no longer use any part of the gym.
- 4 swim in the pool in the early morning.

(3) How can Ms. Brooks use the partner pool?

- 1 Pay a small fee at the door.
- 2 Book a time online first.
- 3 Present her gym membership card.
- 4 Bring a letter from FitLife.

No.13 / 冬の発表会案内（音楽教室→保護者）

From: Harmony Music School <office@harmonymusic.com>

To: Mrs. Diane Scott <d.scott@email.com>

Date: November 28

Subject: Winter Recital – Information for Lucy

Dear Mrs. Scott, Our Winter Recital, where students perform for family and friends, will be held on Saturday, December 14, at the Town Hall. We are writing to invite Lucy to take part. Her teacher feels that she has worked hard this term and is ready to play in front of an audience for the first time.

Lucy will play one short piece, which her teacher will choose with her over the next two lessons. Students should arrive at the Town Hall by 1:30 p.m., though the recital itself begins at 2:00 p.m. This gives everyone time to get used to the stage. Please make sure Lucy wears smart clothes, but she does not need to be too formal—comfortable shoes are a good idea, as the stage steps can be slippery.

There is no charge for performers or for family members who come to watch, but seats are limited, so please let us know by December 7 how many family members will attend. If Lucy would prefer not to perform this time, that is completely fine—just let her teacher know, and she can simply come and enjoy the show. We hope to see you there. Warm regards, The Harmony Team

- (1) Why has Lucy been invited to perform?
- 1 Because she won a music competition.
 - 2 Because her teacher thinks she has made enough progress.
 - 3 Because she has performed many times before.
 - 4 Because her parents asked the school.
- (2) On the day of the recital, Lucy should
- 1 be at the hall thirty minutes before the recital starts.
 - 2 choose her own piece on the day.
 - 3 wear very formal clothing.
 - 4 bring her own chair to the stage.
- (3) What does the school ask Mrs. Scott to do by December 7?
- 1 Pay a fee for Lucy's performance.
 - 2 Buy tickets for the family.
 - 3 Choose the music Lucy will play.
 - 4 Tell the school how many people will come to watch.

To: Local Residents <residents@maplestreet.org>

Date: March 15

Subject: Spring Park Clean-Up — Saturday, March 29

Dear Neighbors, Spring has arrived, and our local park is looking rather messy after the winter. We are organizing a community clean-up on Saturday, March 29, and we would love for you to join us. Working together, we can make the park a beautiful place for everyone to enjoy this summer.

We will meet at the park entrance at 9:00 a.m. and work until about noon. There are jobs for everyone, whether you want to pick up litter, pull weeds, or help plant new flowers near the playground. The association will provide gloves, bags, and tools, so you do not need to bring anything except yourself. We will also have water and snacks for all the helpers.

If you can come, it would help us greatly if you could let us know in advance by replying to this email, so that we can prepare enough tools and food. Children are welcome but must be with an adult. Even if you can only come for an hour, every pair of hands makes a difference. Let's work together to brighten up our neighborhood! Best wishes, The Maple Street Association

(1) Why is the clean-up being organized?

- 1 Because the city has stopped cleaning the park.
- 2 Because a festival will be held in the park.
- 3 Because the park became untidy during the cold months.
- 4 Because new playground equipment has arrived.

(2) People who join the clean-up

- 1 must bring their own tools.
- 2 will be paid for their work.
- 3 have to stay until the evening.
- 4 will have everything they need provided for them.

(3) What does the association ask residents to do?

- 1 Tell them beforehand whether they will attend.
- 2 Bring snacks for the other helpers.
- 3 Pay a small fee to join.
- 4 Come for the whole day only.

To: Mr. Thomas Wells <t.wells@email.com>

Date: June 22

Subject: Re: Reservation for July 5

Dear Mr. Wells, Thank you for your email asking to book a table for twelve people on the evening of July 5. I am happy to tell you that we can welcome your group, and we have reserved our private back room for you, which is perfect for larger parties and gives you more privacy.

For groups of ten or more, we usually ask guests to choose from a set menu rather than ordering separately, as this helps our kitchen serve everyone at the same time. I have attached three set menus at different prices. Could you look at them with your group and let us know which one you would prefer? If anyone in your party has food allergies, please tell us, and our chef will gladly prepare something suitable.

To hold the booking, we ask for a small deposit of $20 per person, which will be taken off your final bill on the night. You can pay this by calling us with a card. Please confirm your menu choice and pay the deposit by June 30. We look forward to giving your group a wonderful evening. Kind regards, Sofia, The Olive Tree

- 1 To reply to his request to book a table.

No.16 / 写真部の新入部員募集 (大学サークル→新入生)

From: Westbridge University Photography Club <photoclub@westbridge.ac.uk>

To: New Students <newstudents@westbridge.ac.uk>

Date: September 18

Subject: Join Us — No Experience Needed!

Hi everyone, Welcome to Westbridge University! The Photography Club is looking for new members, and we'd love for you to join us. You might think you need an expensive camera or lots of skill, but that's not true at all—many of our members use only their phones, and beginners are always welcome.

We meet every Wednesday evening in Room 204 of the Arts Building. At each meeting, we share photos we've taken, learn simple techniques, and plan trips to interesting places around the city. Once a term, we hold an exhibition where members can show their best work to the whole university. Last year, several first-year students had their photos displayed, and they were very proud.

If this sounds fun, come to our welcome meeting on Wednesday, September 25, at 6:00 p.m. in Room 204. There's no need to sign up first—just turn up, and bring a friend if you like. Membership costs only five pounds for the whole year, which helps pay for the exhibition. We hope to see you there! Cheers, The Photography Club Team

(1) What does the email say about joining the club?

- 1 Members must own a professional camera.
- 2 Only experienced photographers may join.
- 3 New members must pay a large fee.
- 4 People with no experience can take part.

(2) At the club's meetings, members

- 1 take photos only of the university.
- 2 show their pictures and learn new skills.

Subject: Required Training for Our New System

Dear All, As you know, next month we will switch to a new computer system for managing our projects. To help everyone use it confidently, we are holding training sessions, and all staff must attend one. The new system will make our daily work faster, but only if we all know how to use it properly.

There are four sessions to choose from, held on February 3, 5, 10, and 12, each lasting two hours. Please sign up for one session using the link below. Each session can hold only twenty people, so we recommend choosing early to get the time that suits you best. If none of the dates work for you, contact me directly and we will arrange another time.

Please note that you will not be able to use the new system until you have completed the training, so it is important not to miss it. After the session, you will receive a short guide to keep at your desk. If you have questions before then, feel free to email me. Thank you for your cooperation. Best, David

To: Jessica Lin <jessica.lin@email.com>

Date: December 3

Subject: Update on Your Order #48291

Dear Ms. Lin, Thank you for your recent order. We are writing to let you know that one item in your order, "The History of Tea," is taking longer than expected to arrive from our supplier. We are sorry for the delay and want to explain your options so you can choose what works best for you.

The other two books in your order are ready to send now. We can either send all three books together once the delayed book arrives—which we expect by December 18—or we can send the two available books to you immediately and post the third one separately as soon as we receive it. Sending them separately would mean you get most of your order sooner, at no extra delivery cost to you.

As a thank-you for your patience, we have added a ten percent discount voucher to your account for your next order. Kind regards, The ReadMore Team

No.21 / 在宅勤務の新方針（運営→全社員）

From: Rachel Moore, Operations <r.moore@summittech.com>

To: All Employees <all@summittech.com>

Date: August 22

Subject: New Work-from-Home Policy from September

Dear Team, Starting September 1, we will introduce a new work-from-home policy. After trying remote work over the past year, we have listened to your feedback and created a plan that we believe gives everyone a good balance between working at home and working together in the office.

Under the new policy, all employees may work from home up to two days each week. The other three days should be spent in the office, so that teams can meet and work together in person. You may choose which days you work from home, but please agree on this with your manager first, so that your team always has enough people in the office on any given day. Fridays remain a normal office day for everyone, as we hold our weekly team meetings then.

To make this work, please discuss your preferred home-working days with your manager during the last week of August. Your manager will then confirm the arrangement. If your role requires you to be in the office more often, your manager will explain this to you. We think this new policy will help us all work better. Thank you. Rachel

(1) Why has the company created this new policy?

- 1 Because too many people were working in the office.
- 2 Because it listened to employees' feedback.
- 3 Because the office is being closed down.
- 4 Because a new manager joined the company.

(2) Under the new policy, employees may

- 1 spend a limited part of each week working at home.
- 2 work from home every day.
- 3 never come into the office.
- 4 take Fridays off completely.

(3) What should employees do during the last week of August?

- 1 Sign a new work contract.
- 2 Choose a new manager.
- 3 Buy equipment for home.
- 4 Tell their manager which days they hope to stay home.

From: Green Corner Community Garden <info@greencorner.org>

To: Ms. Karen Bell <k.bell@email.com>

Date: March 22

Subject: Welcome – Your Garden Plot Is Ready

Dear Ms. Bell, Welcome to the Green Corner Community Garden! We are delighted that you have joined us this spring. Your application has been accepted, and we have given you Plot 12, which is in a sunny spot near the water tap—a great place for growing vegetables. This email explains a few things to help you get started.

You are free to grow whatever you like in your plot, whether vegetables, fruit, or flowers. We do ask all members to follow two simple rules: please keep your own plot tidy, and use only natural methods, without chemical sprays, as we want the garden to be safe for everyone, including children and bees. Tools and watering cans are kept in the shed, which all members may use.

Each member is also asked to help with the garden's shared areas, such as the paths and the compost, for about one hour a month. We arrange these sessions on the first Saturday morning of each month. Please come to our welcome meeting on Saturday, April 5, at 10:00 a.m., where you can collect your plot key and meet the other gardeners. We look forward to seeing you there. Best wishes, The Green Corner Team

(1) What does the email tell Ms. Bell about her plot?

- 1 It is in a shady corner of the garden.
- 2 It must be shared with another member.
- 3 It gets plenty of sunlight and is close to water.
- 4 It can only be used for flowers.

(2) One of the garden's rules is that members must

- 1 avoid using chemicals on their plants.
- 2 grow only vegetables in their plots.
- 3 buy their own tools and watering cans.
- 4 keep children away from the garden.

(3) What does the email ask Ms. Bell to do on April 5?

- 1 Pay her membership fee.
- 2 Bring her own gardening tools.
- 3 Start planting her vegetables.
- 4 Attend a meeting and pick up the key to her plot.

No.28 / 開催場所・時間の変更（言語交換の会→会員）

From: City Language Exchange <hello@citylanguage.org>

To: Members <members@citylanguage.org>

Date: September 7

Subject: Change of Place and Time for Our Meetups

Dear Members, Thank you all for making our weekly language exchange meetups such a success. Because so many people have been coming, our usual room at the City Café has become too small and noisy. I am writing to let you know that, starting next week, we will move to a new place and slightly change our meeting time.

From September 14, our meetups will be held at the Community Library on Oak Street, in their quiet meeting room on the first floor. The new room is larger and much quieter, which will make it easier to practice speaking and to hear one another. We will also start half an hour later, at 7:00 p.m. instead of 6:30, as several members said they found it hard to arrive straight after work.

Everything else about our meetups will stay the same, and they remain free to attend. If you usually came to the City Café, please remember the new place from next week so that you don't go to the wrong building. If you know anyone who might enjoy joining us, our new, larger room means there is plenty of space, so feel free to bring them along. See you on Oak Street! The City Language Exchange Team

(1) Why are the meetups moving to a new place?

- 1 Because the City Café is closing down.
- 2 Because fewer people have been coming.
- 3 Because the café has raised its prices.
- 4 Because their current room can no longer hold everyone comfortably.

(2) From September 14, the meetups will

- 1 cost a small fee to attend.
- 2 be held at the City Café as before.
- 3 start later in the evening than they used to.
- 4 be held in the early afternoon.

(3) What does the email ask members to remember?

- 1 To bring food to share.
- 2 To go to the library instead of the café from next week.
- 3 To sign up again online.
- 4 To arrive before 6:30 p.m.

To: Riverside FC Players <riversidefc@greenfieldleague.org>

Subject: Saturday's Match Postponed — New Date Inside

Dear Players, Unfortunately, this Saturday's match against Hill United has been postponed. After heavy rain all week, the ground is too wet and muddy to play on safely, and the referee has decided that going ahead could lead to injuries. We are sorry for the late notice, but the safety of all players comes first.

The good news is that we have already arranged a new date. The match will now be played on Saturday, November 29, at the same time and place, 2:00 p.m. at Greenfield Park. The league table will be updated to show that this game is still to be played. There is no need to do anything to confirm—we just ask that you keep the new date free if you can.

If, for any reason, you are not able to play on November 29, please tell your team captain as soon as possible, so that he knows how many players will be available. If too few players can make the new date, we may have to find another one. Thank you for your understanding, and let's hope for better weather! Best wishes, The League Office

(1) Why has Saturday's match been postponed?

- 1 Because one team cannot find enough players.
- 2 Because rain has left the field in dangerous condition.
- 3 Because the referee is unavailable.
- 4 Because the other team asked to change the date.

(2) About the new date, players

- 1 are not required to send any reply.
- 2 must reply to accept the match.
- 3 will play at a different park.
- 4 will start at a different time.

(3) What should a player do if he cannot play on November 29?

- 1 Find another player to take his place.
- 2 Email the league office directly.
- 3 Pay a fee to the team.
- 4 Let the team captain know right away.

No.30 / シフト交代のお願い (同僚→同僚)

From: Tom Bennett <t.bennett@email.com>

To: Sarah Lewis <s.lewis@email.com>

Date: June 18

Subject: Could You Help Me with a Shift?

Hi Sarah, I hope you're well. I'm writing to ask a favor. I'm scheduled to work next Friday evening, June 27, but my sister is getting married that day, and I really don't want to miss it. I was wondering whether you might be able to cover my shift for me.

I know it's a lot to ask, especially on a Friday. The shift is from 5:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., the same as our usual evening shifts, so nothing about the work itself would be different. If you can't do the whole evening, even covering the first half would be a huge help, and I could try to find someone else for the rest. Of course, I'd be very happy to take one of your shifts in return whenever you need.

If you are able to help, could you let me know by this Friday, June 20? That way, if you can't, I'll still have time to ask someone else or speak to our manager. Please don't worry at all if you're busy—I completely understand. Thanks so much for considering it. Best, Tom

- (1) Why is Tom asking Sarah for a favor?
- 1 Because he is feeling unwell.
 - 2 Because he wants to change jobs.
 - 3 Because he wants to attend his sister's wedding.
 - 4 Because he is going on holiday.
- (2) Tom says that if Sarah cannot do the whole evening, she could
- 1 ask the manager to cancel the shift.
 - 2 work a different day instead.
 - 3 take one of his future shifts.
 - 4 cover just the first half of the shift.
- (3) What does Tom ask Sarah to do by June 20?
- 1 Let him know whether she can help.
 - 2 Speak to their manager for him.
 - 3 Find another person to cover the shift.
 - 4 Pay him back for a previous favor.
